Sir,

Sub: Nominations for the Academic Leadership Academy event at Penn State University on June 22-26, 2014.

As you are aware, at the request of DEA, the World Bank is currently engaged on a Higher Education Reform Technical Assistance with the Government of Bihar. As part of this technical assistance, the World Bank has agreed to sponsor education administrators from Bihar for the Academic Leadership Academy event at Penn State from June 22-26, 2014. Such leadership programs are linked to the World Bank support as they are crucial for building leadership capacity at Universities and Colleges in Bihar to take forward higher education reform.

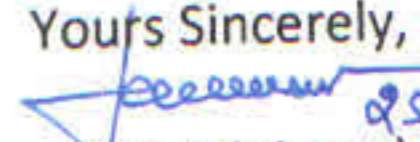

In anticipation of a team from India, the Academic Leadership Academy of 2014 will have dedicated sessions and activities for the prospective team from India on four of the five days in the event. After the event, the team shall also visit some high quality Universities and Colleges.

In this context, I am sending the nominations from Bihar for the Academic Leadership Academy at Penn State, 2014, as follows:

1. Prof. Yelda C. Simhadri, Vice Chancellor, Patna University
2. Prof. Md. Ishtiaque, Vice Chancellor, Magadh University
3. Dr. Leela Chand Saha, Pro- Vice Chancellor, Veer Kunwar Singh University, Ara
4. Dr. Neelima Sinha, Pro- Vice Chancellor, BRAB Bihar University, Muzaffarpur
5. Prof. S. Kushwaha, Vice Chancellor, LN Mithila University, Darbhanga
6. Prof. Rama Shankar Dubey, Vice Chancellor, Tilka Manjhi Bhagalpur University, Bhagalpur
7. Prof. Ejaz Ali Arshad, Vice Chancellor, Maulana Mazrul Haque Arabi & Farsi University, Patna
8. Prof. Ram Prakash Upadhyaya, Pro- Vice Chancellor, Nalanda Open University, Patna
9. Mr. Anup Kumar Sinha, Deputy Director, (Higher Education) Govt. of Bihar, Patna

It is requested to kindly approve the State nominations so that the same can be sent to Penn State and all necessary logistics can be taken care of.

Thanking you.

Yours Sincerely,

(H R Srinivasa)
